

Complaints/Grievance Policy

The Board of Wayback has a policy of appropriately addressing complaints and grievances in the following manner. People are encouraged to lodge a complaint if a grievance exists and they will be supported by Wayback during the grievance process.

It should be noted that Wayback will support any whistle-blower in bringing a matter to the attention of the relevant authority. Any person found intimidating, ridiculing or excluding a whistle-blower for activities will be disciplined.

